Rains Hinder US Attacks On North

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. pilots flew a record 175 missions against North Viet Nam on Friday, but rain and low-hanging clouds kept air strikes Saturday below that figure.

The U.S. Command said tactical bombers struck at Communist positions inside the Demilitarized Zone again Saturday and hit targets in North Viet Nam's southern panhandle, causing numerous secondary explosions and fires.

Friday's record topped one set Thursday when American pilots flew 173 missions against the Communist North. In the raids Friday, pilots strafed a missile site, railroad yards, bridges, barges and storage buildings.

STORM VICTIMS—Lawrence Kunkel of Mt. Sterling paused Saturday while burying five of his original 39 chickens in his storm-tossed garden. Kunkel said he's found six of the fowl, five dead, after the storm. "No telling where the others are," he said. Kunkel and his wife narrowly escaped injury when they went to the kitchen of the house for ice cream, and the storm drove a tree limb into the living room of their home, where they had been sitting.

Storm Victims Begin Cleanup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Vicious wind and swirling snow socked areas of the Midwest and the Great Plains on Saturday and torrential rains beat Texas as residents of Iowa cleaned up after a death-dealing tornado.

At least 13 persons were dead after the season's first wintry onslaught, six in Belmond, Iowa, where a tornado struck Friday, and seven in blizzard-whipped areas of Colorado and Wyoming.

Gov. Harold E. Hughes looked over the awesome damage in Belmond Saturday and said it was miraculous that no more than six lives were lost.

The governor saw a scene of what he called "almost total disaster."

172 Injured
The Red Cross said a survey showed 172 persons injured, 116 homes destroyed, 100 homes with major damage, 368 homes with minor damage, and 85 percent of the business district destroyed.

Hughes, who left a political campaign tour to see the tornado damage for himself, immediately issued a call for hundreds of volunteers to aid in cleaning up the debris.

Russ Plans Space Launch For Thursday

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union will launch a spacecraft with several men aboard next Thursday before the eyes of East European Communist leaders, Communist sources said Saturday.

The Soviet-bloc leaders will assemble earlier in Moscow to discuss their attitude toward Red China, the sources said. This could lead to a joint statement denouncing Chinese policy, thus deepening the split in the Red camp.

Neither the launching nor the meeting were officially confirmed. But the reports on both came from several usually well-informed Communist sources.

The Russians have not launched a cosmonaut since Alexei Leonov took the first walk in space on March 18, 1965. The long delay, now 19 months, has triggered periodic rumors here of an approaching space spectacular involving more men in space than ever before.

Some sources said two cosmonauts would be launched Thursday. Others said more. All agreed that by the end of the year the Russians would attempt to orbit eight men in the world's largest satellite so far.

No foreign leaders are known to have ever witnessed a top-secret launching of a Soviet cosmonaut.

In June, President Charles de Gaulle of France became the first foreign leader known to have watched a Soviet launching. That satellite was unmanned.

France and the Soviet Union are cooperating on space research. But so are the Soviet Union and her East European allies. It appeared likely that once the Russians permitted De Gaulle to see a launch they were pressured to do at least that much for their friendly Communist allies.

Transportation

Twelfth Cabinet Agency Created

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new Cabinet department to oversee the nation's land and air transportation came into existence Saturday with President Johnson's signature.

He expressed hope that Congress will reconsider its decision to omit water transportation from the sweeping unification of federal agencies.

But a packed audience in the White House East Room waiting to see if Johnson might name a secretary to head the new department got no hint from him. He merely said he intends to appoint a strong man, the best-equipped man in the country.

Johnson noted that transportation is the nation's biggest industry, involving one of every five dollars in the economy. He said it will be a mammoth task to untangle, coordinate and build a national transportation system that the nation deserves.

The President said the government is taking a major step in getting up-to-date with the times in bringing together 31 agencies and bureaus that deal with land and air travel.

"We are falling behind, and our lifeline is tangled," he said. The signing of the bill creating this 12th department, the second voted by Congress in two years, was witnessed by government officials, transportation industry representatives, members of Congress and 30 big-city mayors with whom he conferred earlier in the day.

The mayors gathered at the White House at Johnson's request and he asked them to hold down on spending where they can to help combat inflation and rising living costs.

In addition to the transportation bill, Johnson also signed earlier in the day six conservation measures. A packed audience in the Cabinet room heard him praise the 98th Congress for restoring "more land for parks and playgrounds than we lose to housing, highways, airports and shopping centers."

Johnson described the conservation bill as giving "part of America back to its people." Thus, it was another whirlwind day in the stepped-up tempo of the President, who leaves Monday for his six-nation Pacific tour. He takes time out Sunday to attend the consecration at Doylestown, Pa., of a $3-million shrine to Our Lady of Czestochowa, Queen of Peace.

LBJ Claims Laws To Fight Poverty Will Curb Crime

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — President Johnson declared Saturday night that antipoverty laws, not anticrime laws, are the long-range answer to the fight against crime.

In a speech prepared for the Conference of State Committees on Criminal Administration, the President said "we must chart a national strategy against crime," which he said has five objectives:

"Increased understanding of crime, more help for our police, a more efficient and more equitable system of criminal justice, better prisoner rehabilitation, the search for social reform."

He declared, "It is far better to prevent crime than to punish it."

MOW 'EM DOWN—The Sophomore class of Jacksonville high school entered this float in the homecoming parade Saturday and captured first place in the competition.

Viet War Blocking Closer U.S., Russ Ties: Brezhnev

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev agreed with President Johnson Saturday that he would like to see U.S.-Soviet relations improved but declared this was impossible so long as the United States pursues "aggressive war" in Viet Nam.

In a speech in the Kremlin a friendship meeting with Polish leaders, the general secretary of the Soviet Communist party in effect rejected an appeal by Johnson in a New York speech Oct. 7 for an improvement in East-West relations.

"If the United States wants to develop mutually profitable relations with the Soviet Union — and we would like this in principle — it is necessary to remove the main obstacle," Brezhnev said.

"Stop the piratical raids on a Socialist state, the DRV (Democratic Republic of North Viet Nam) and stop the aggressive war against the Vietnamese people; respect not in words but in deeds the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of the other countries and people."

Haven't Demanded Pullout
The lack of a specific demand for the withdrawal of U.S. forces from South Viet Nam stirred speculation among diplomats here. The Communist position, repeated in Hanoi as recently as Thursday, has been that withdrawal is one of the preconditions for any Vietnamese settlement.

Some diplomats suggested there might be some slight shift in the Soviet attitude toward finding a way out of the Vietnamese impasse. But they hesitated to draw firm conclusions.

At one point in his speech Brezhnev said that prospects had improved for a treaty to halt the spread of nuclear weapons, which would be signed by the United States and the Soviet Union among others. He added that the Soviet Union "will spare no effort to sign an agreement."

At another point he assailed Red China's leaders, saying they had refused to cooperate in trying to end the U.S. aggression in Viet Nam. He also branded them as renegades to the Communist cause.

Soviet-Bloc To Meet
Communists sources said Soviet-bloc leaders would meet in Moscow early next week to discuss Red China and possibly might issue a statement denouncing Chinese policy. These sources said the leaders then would watch the launching of a heavy space satellite containing several men next Thursday.

Visiting Polish Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka, who is remaining for the night, said he plans to call within a week.

U.S., South Viet Map Strategy For Manila Conference

MANILA (AP) — The Americans and South Vietnamese are expected to get the Manila summit conference started with a detailed and sweeping review of military, political and economic conditions in South Viet Nam.

With preparations for the Oct. 24 seven-nation summit well under way, it was shaping up as a businesslike conference with a minimum of public display.

President Johnson, who Monday begins the international swing that will bring him to Manila, has summoned top brass to join him for the conference. In addition to Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, he has ordered Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge from Saigon and the U.S. Pacific commander, Adm. Ulysses S. Grant Sharp, to join the delegation.

The South Vietnamese ruling duo — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu — have signified they also will bring the regime's top military, political and economic members.

Plans for a formal opening session have been considerably shortened. In place of a series of speeches in the Philippine Senate, the opening ceremony will consist of only a welcoming address by President Ferdinand Marcos and perhaps some brief remarks.

With that, the conference will repair to a room 24 by 38 feet at the president's Malacanang Palace. Closed-door sessions will start immediately.

The room is so small that each delegation will be held to six men at any one time.

Although Rusk and several of the foreign ministers will arrive Oct. 21 before the conference, there will be no formal foreign ministers' meeting before the summit. Instead, there will be a series of bilateral talks in the refurbished Manila Hotel — one Gen. Douglas MacArthur's wartime headquarters — where all delegations are staying.

Marcos planned to take up an almost permanent station at Manila's International Airport Oct. 23 when the chiefs of state and government are due to fly in. Prime Minister Harold Holt of Australia and Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake of New Zealand will arrive in the same plane.

Printers' Union, Papers Reach Tentative Pact
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Negotiators announced Saturday night a tentative agreement ending a walkout by printers that had stopped the publication of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and Globe-Democrat, the city's two major dailies.

Harry B. Russell, president of Local 8 of the International Typographical Union, said printers were to report to work on their regular shifts Sunday. Russell said the settlement was contingent on approval by the 525 to 550 union members at a meeting that he plans to call within a week.

The destroyer escort Chaudiere said she spotted the 1514-foot boat drifting upside down Friday about 600 miles southeast of Newfoundland.

The last entry in the Puffin's log, found intact in a sealed locker, was dated Sept. 3. It read: "Not rowing because of north-northwest wind, Force 2."

This would indicate a wind velocity of 8 to 10 miles per hour.

Hurricane Faith Hits
The entry was written just one day before Hurricane Faith struck that area, said the British Ministry of Defense.

The discovery brought a final tone of tragedy to the Puffin saga and seemed to rule out lingering hope that the two bachelor carmen — David Johnston, 34, and John Hoare, 29 — had survived the cruel sea.

Johnston and Hoare left Virginia Beach, Va., in the specially designed boat May 21. They were last sighted Aug. 11 about halfway across the Atlantic but still 1,500 miles from their goal, Land's End, England.

The Chaudiere reported "no sign of life anywhere about" the capsized rowboat. Its sea anchor — a drogue for use in heavy weather — was streaming over the side.

Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan was rated well ahead in his re-election contest and his pull may help Griffin.

Statistically, as to the House, the surveyors rated 227 Democrats and 139 Republicans as apparently ahead in their races, and tabbed 89 as doubtful, possibly to go either way.

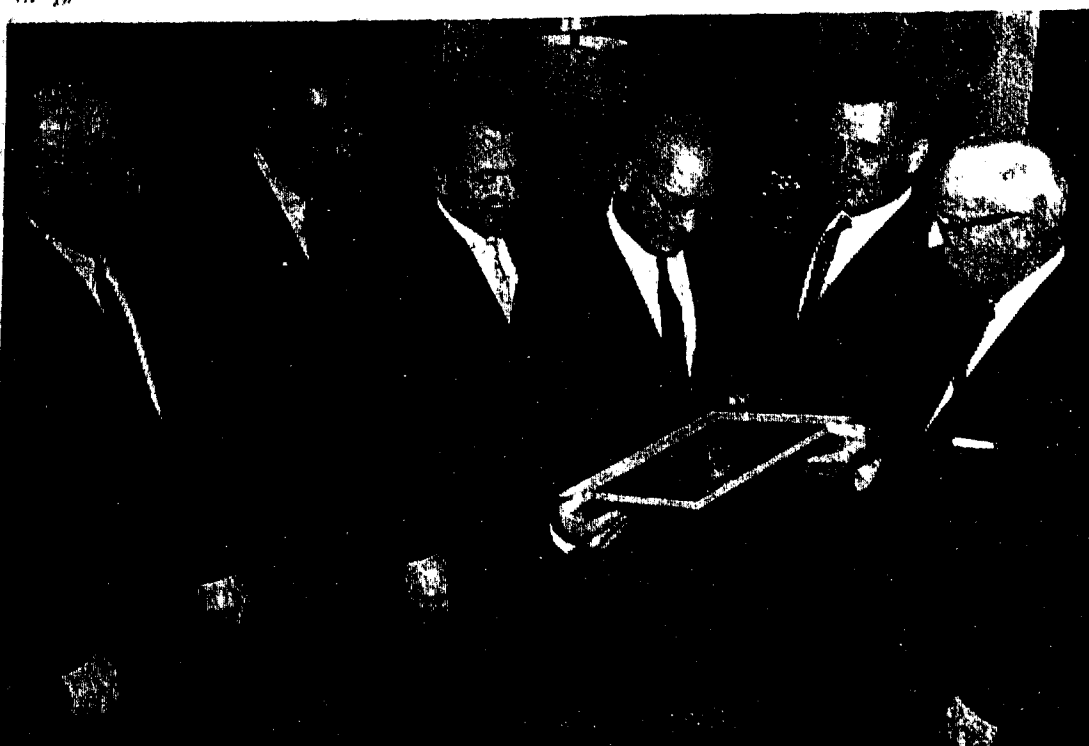

For purposes of comparison, the present House has 244 Democrats, 139 Republicans and 2 vacancies — one previously Democratic and one Republican.

Unsteady GOP Seats
With the present heavy Democratic hold on the House, most of the seats rated as doubtful are of course Democratic, but there is a sprinkling of doubtful seats now held by Republicans. Among seats the Republicans may not be able to hold are at least two of the five they won in Alabama in 1964 and the one in Mississippi that Rep. Prentiss Walker gave up to the (Turn to Page Nine)

Home-Health Service Available In County

"Comprehensive Home Health Services are available through your Morgan County Health Department and Visiting Nurses Association," Dr. Rosario R. Sison, acting health officer, said recently.

This part-time home nursing service is not restricted to those 65 and over who are enrolled in the Medicare program, but is available to any who needs them provided the patient's physician gives medical direction. A source of funds is available to pay for visits if patients are unable to meet the costs.

It is of importance to the community that our home nursing services are available to everyone regardless of age. Whether you need assistance with a bed-ridden child, a diabetic or heart patient, a middle-aged ill or handicapped person, contact your county health department to learn how you may obtain the help you need.

For those entitled to them under the Medicare Act, Part A, the Hospital Insurance Program of the Medicare Act, provides for up to 100 visits per year of Home Health Services during the 365 days following the patient's discharge from a hospital after at least a three day stay. In addition to skilled nursing service, the Home Health Services also provides for physical therapy. In clarifying these provisions under Part A, Dr. Sison pointed out that these Home Nursing Services must start within fourteen days after hospital discharge and must, in all instances, be ordered by the physician in charge of the patient.

If a patient is also enrolled in Part B, the Supplementary Medical Insurance Program, he is entitled to an additional 100 visits during each calendar year.

The Ashland Juniors and Ashland Senior clubs will co-sponsor a film on "Cancer." All ladies in the community are invited to attend. The film will be shown at the library at a later date. Literature will be available.

The next meeting will be held November 3rd at the home of Mrs. John Cosner. The program will be a Decorama Show Case.

The date of the potluck dinner to be held at Norma Neff's home was changed to Tuesday, October 18th at 6:30 p.m.

The cultural program, "Painting a Person" was given by Betty Bussey.

Hospital Notes

Royal Oakes and Roy Beird, both of the Bluffs area, are patients at Passavant hospital.

Frank Lichamer of Bluffs is a patient at Holy Cross hospital.

Carl "Doc" Severinsen, who will be on MacMurray College campus Thursday, Oct. 20, is acknowledged by the elite of professional musicians to be the finest trumpeter playing today. Born in Arlington, Oregon, in 1927, he was started on the trumpet by his father, an excellent musician himself as well as dentist. At the age of nine he won the Oregon State contest, and at 13 won first in the National Senior Division contest.

After school and Army service, "Doc" Severinsen played and was featured with the orchestras of Charlie Barnett, Sam Donahue, Tommy Dorsey, Benny Goodman and Gene Krupa. His first steady assignment as a free-lance artist was the "Camel Caravan" with Vaughn Monroe. He studied several years with the late Benny Baker, former first trumpet with Toscanini.

As a staff musician at NBC, he worked such shows as Kate Smith, Dinah Shore, Eddy Fisher, Sid Caesar, and was a regular soloist and conductor on the original Steve Allen Show and

"NBC Bandstand." Presently on the "Tonight Show" with Johnny Carson, he is frequently featured as soloist and serves as assistant conductor to Skitch Henderson.

In addition to a clinic at 4 p.m., "Doc" Severinsen will present a concert at 8:15 p.m. in the Annie Merner Chapel, MacMurray College, to which the public is invited. He will be backed by the MacMurray Orchestra, augmented with professional musicians.

His performance is co-sponsored by the Jacksonville Rotary Club. Tickets, at $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students, are available at Lukeman Clothing Store, DeLert Paint Store, and from any Rotarian. Proceeds will be used to complete payment of Rotary's pledge to the Sherwood Eddy Memorial YMCA Building Fund. Teaching Nun Lays Aside Religious Garb

By DAN TEDRICK
LITCHFIELD, Ariz. (AP) — Sister Elizabeth Ann Mahoney, in a move of ecumenical significance, has laid aside her Roman Catholic religious garb and is teaching at St. Peter's Episcopal Church school here.

Her decision has the approval of Catholic and Episcopal Church officials. It was suggested by her Mother Superior of the Sisters of Charity at Seton Hill College, Greensburg, Pa., after she had read of the Episcopal school and that it features a modified Montessori system of teaching.

Sister Elizabeth, suffering from arthritis, had asked for a one-year leave, was delighted by the chance to go to Arizona. "I believe this is the beginning of a move in which many sisters may help in Lutheran, Methodist and Episcopalian schools which are without a woman to set the pace for the spiritual life of the school," she said.

Sister Elizabeth earned a bachelor's degree in education from Duquesne University and a master's from Xavier University. She completed an academic year at the International Montessori School in Washington, and taught for several years in the Pittsburgh diocese.

The other Sisters of Charity at Greensburg made a new wardrobe for Sister Elizabeth consisting of a blue suit, several white blouses, skirts in black and colors, a tiny white headband, and black utility pumps.

Her pupils range in age from 2½ to 7 years. The other teachers say Sister Elizabeth already is a hit with the youngsters.

Said one boy the other day: "You are the most beautiful sister. I want my mommy to get clothes like yours."

Aussie Views On Viet About Like American

By GORDON TAIT
SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — When President Johnson comes here, he will find Australians think much the same as Americans about the Viet Nam conflict. Many dislike it. Some think Australians just have to be in it, others that they should be out of it.

Australia has 4,500 men in South Viet Nam, including two infantry support forces and headquarters staff. Advisers have been there since 1962.

Over-all, about 7,000 Australians have been through Saigon and of these 73 have been killed in action, one is missing and 327 wounded.

Among those in Viet Nam are draftees conscripted at the age of 20. This is especially a sore point with many Australians, who traditionally believe only volunteers should be sent out of the country.

Even in World War II, only volunteers were sent farther away than New Guinea and other nearby islands that shielded Australia. But there were plenty of volunteers and Australians fought in all theaters, counted casualties of 23,365 dead, 6,030 missing, 39,803 wounded with 26,363 more taken prisoners.

The country's population then was under eight million. Today it is around 11.6 million. It is as many of these citizens see it, the situation in South Viet Nam is a different proposition from World War II when Australians felt they were fighting for survival.

Newspapers have said in editorials in the past few days that Johnson will find a strong majority of people opposed to America's policy in Viet Nam.

Johnson almost certainly will see demonstrations against the war. The feeling is especially strong among those who have a stake in it — those liable to draft, and those close to them.

"Where do top executives buy their suits?"

By

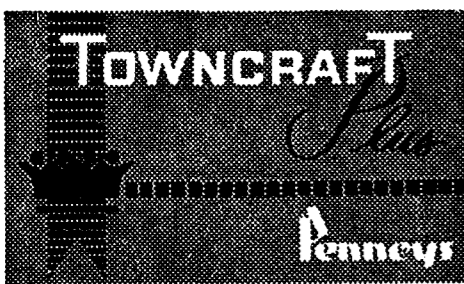

ROBERTA NASH

The magazine "Finance" wondered about this and other questions. It sent out a questionnaire to subscribers. Here are some of the things learned.

Median salary was $30,000. (Lowest was $8,500 and highest was $500,000!) 94% were Vice Presidents or above.

As to the labels in their suits: The four names mentioned most included two national brands and two stores. One of the stores was Brooks Brothers. The other store? J. C. Penney.

Surprised? I was — until I remembered these were successful business men, accustomed to basing their decisions on value. Why expect their shrewdness to stop at the office?

A STEP FORWARD . . .

In many elections there are important measures to be voted on that, to a considerable extent, are a mystery to a majority of voters. When this occurs, most voters cast a negative vote or do not vote at all. As a result, worthwhile bills or amendments are often defeated because the voters are uninformed or are apathetic.

THE ILLINOIS BANKING ACT AMENDMENTS (THE PINK BALLOT)

WILL BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 8.

These Amendments are important to Illinois banks and the public they serve, basically because they will strengthen and broaden the State Banking Act, and will provide the public with better and more convenient banking services.

All of the Amendments are important and constructive, but the one most directly of benefit, and therefore of interest, to the public is the "facility" Amendment. This authorizes the ownership and operation of one drive-up facility located apart from the main banking premises. The facility must be located within 1,500 feet of the main premises of the establishing bank, and will allow banks to provide drive-up banking services away from congested traffic areas. There are certain restrictions that prevent one bank from encroaching on another bank's territory.

The Amendments have been endorsed by the Illinois Bankers Association, the Department of Financial Institutions, Governor Kerner, and state and national banks throughout the State. It should be pointed out that the Amendments do not in any way alter provisions in the state banking act which prohibit branch banking.

We believe all Illinois voters should give their support to these constructive banking Amendments.

Armed Robbers Take $100,000 Worth Of Gems

CHICAGO (AP)—Four masked men took a gem fortune upwards of $100,000 Saturday in an early morning robbery of the recently opened Chicago store of Tiffany and Co., fashionable New York jewelers.

Lt. Earl R. Johnson, commander of the Chicago police robbery section, said that the loss, at first reported at about $50,000, will be "at least $100,000 and perhaps much more."

Part of the loot consisted of at least 50 unset diamonds, other multi-karat diamonds, rubies and emeralds in platinum and gold settings.

The trench coat-clad robbers, wearing ski masks and armed with a carbine, a shotgun and pistols, apparently had accurate and extensive knowledge of the store at 715 N. Michigan Ave., and its operation.

They entered the basement of the building when the door was opened by a cleaning woman, Mrs. Minnie Washington, who is employed by the Elizabeth Arden Co., beauty salon which shares the building with Tiffany's.

Employees of the jewelry firm regularly enter the store before opening time through the basement. The gunmen, after putting Mrs. Washington into a storeroom under guard, greeted eight other arrivals including three detective agency guards, three Tiffany employees and two Elizabeth Arden employees. All were herded into the storeroom.

Then, two of the Tiffany employees were escorted upstairs and ordered to shut off burglar alarms and open a wall vault. They complied, but the burglar alarm was left operative on the rear door.

After the robbers quickly cleaned out the small vault, they dashed out through the back doorway, setting the burglar alarm to jangling, and made off in a car, apparently held ready in the alley by another member of the gang.

Johnson termed the robbery "highly professional." He said that New York officials of the jewelry firm were en route to Chicago to inventory the loss, but a definite figure might not be available for two or three days.

INDIANA MAN, DAUGHTER KILLED IN HOME BLAZE

SPENCER, Ind. (AP) — An elderly man and his invalid daughter were burned to death Saturday as fire, apparently caused by lightning, swept their Owen County home.

Neighbors saw flames leaping from the home but were unable to reach Otis Abrell, 85, and his daughter, Opal 56, whose bodies were found inside.

TRUCK TORN FROM FRAME—The chassis of this truck was torn from the frame by the force of the tornado that swept through Mt. Sterling Friday night. Parts of the truck were scattered over a three-hundred yard path north of the frame. An overturned auto is seen in the background.

NO ONE AT HOME FRIDAY AT NINE—Harry and Marie Wort of Mt. Sterling "were at the show" enjoying the Kentucky Music Hall show in the St. Mary's academy gym when the tornado ripped their mobile home apart at 312 East South street sometime between 8:45 and 9 p.m. Friday in Mt. Sterling. Saturday morning the Worts were picking up what household belongings were still intact.

BROWN COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS AWASH—Storm wreckage scattered along the fence rail at the Brown county fairgrounds on the northeast side of Mt. Sterling traveled in some instances as far as 1000 yards. The carriage of a house trailer (center) was torn from the remainder of the structure and overturned. The grandstand at the park, which would have normally appeared in upper left of picture, was leveled. Parts of buildings and cars were found as far as a quarter of a mile north of the fairgrounds.

A HOUSE DIVIDED—The residence of Mrs. Enos Poole was moved approximately 30 feet by the force of the storm which raised havoc in Mt. Sterling Friday night shortly before nine o'clock. Seen in the background right are two of the five demolished school buses, owned by community school district #1 (JOURNAL COURIER Photos)

Chicago Livestock Market Report

CHICAGO (AP)—The trend of hog prices was downward this week, with the top price for a 100 lb. hog dropping from $23.50 a hundredweight on Monday to $22.50 on Friday.

The supply of 27,000 head for this week was down 1,500 from last week but it met a slow demand most of the time. The price for best offerings on Friday was the lowest peak since May 1965. However, it was paid freely.

For the week, the market was 25 to 75 cents lower than a week ago with the average price estimated at $22.45 compared with $22.90 a week ago and $24.10 a year ago.

The cattle supply was about 23 per cent larger than a week earlier and slaughter steers, in rather slow demand, sold steady to 50 cents lower. They were estimated at an average of $28.85, down only 2 cents from last week but 73 cents under a year ago.

Prices held steady for woolled slaughter lambs.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week made a lively recovery after three straight weeks of decline.

Blue chips and glamor issues alike made a good showing, although it was not unanimous. Analysts saw the market as rebounding from a deeply oversold condition and as being assisted in this move by some favorable news items.

The Dow Jones industrial average during the week advanced 27.59 to 771.71, winning back most of the 29.90 it lost in the previous week.

Trading was somewhat heavier as prices improved. Volume for the week totaled 39,279,723 shares compared with 37,544,820 in the previous week.

The week's trading started off in typical "Blue Monday" fashion but early selling, accompanied by a late ticker tape, was stemmed and the list made a substantial gain on volume exceeding 9.3 million shares, the largest since the end of August. The action was described as mainly technical.

Blue chips took over market leadership on Tuesday when the averages forged ahead once more. Many of the high-priced glamor issues suffered from profit-taking on their one day of recovery.

On Wednesday the market made its biggest leap of the year in response to statements by Commerce Secretary John T. Connor and Arthur Okun, a member of the Council of Economic Advisors, to the effect that there is no immediate likelihood of controls on wages and profits because of the hostilities in Viet Nam.

The rise of 19.54 in the Dow Jones average that day was the largest since Nov. 26, 1963, when it ran up 33.03 in a recovery from the plunge accompanying President Kennedy's assassination.

The Thursday market erased an early gain and turned mixed. The Friday session also was mixed, featured by strength in cigarette stocks and weakness in General Motors.

Of 1,587 issues traded last week on the New York Stock Exchange, 1,147 rose and 285 fell.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks this week rose 9.9 to 279.3.

U.S. government bonds declined for the first time in four weeks, and corporate issues generally were higher.

Senate against Democratic Sen. James O. Eastland.

Doubtful and possibly a Democratic pickup in the Massachusetts seat held by former Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr., who was beaten in the primary by Mrs. Margaret M. Heckler, 35, a lawyer-housewife.

The 139 districts in which Republicans were adjudged ahead in the same number of seats they now hold. If they can take these seats, any gains must come out of the 60 districts classified as doubtful.

An even break in these would just about be a recoup of the 38 seats, net, they lost in 1964. An average off-year gain for the party out of power is 37.

Of the 35 Senate seats involved in the election, 20 are now held by Democrats and 15 by Republicans. The total present Senate division is 67 Democrats and 33 Republicans.

Already won.

The Democrats start with three Senate seats in the bag. The Republicans are not running candidates in Arkansas, Georgia and Louisiana.

Democrats also seem to be ahead, even if not comfortably so in all cases, in Alabama, Alaska, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, West Virginia and in both of two Virginia races.

These are seats they now hold. Republicans have decided edges in Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, New Jersey, South Dakota and in the South Carolina seat now held by Strom Thurmond. They have good prospects also for holding their Idaho and Delaware seats, although they may be close.

This leaves as the chief battle areas Massachusetts, Illinois, Oregon and Michigan — previously mentioned — plus Montana, Tennessee, Texas, Nebraska, Wyoming and the second South Carolina seat.

Of these 10, five — Massachusetts, Michigan, Texas, Nebraska and Wyoming — are now Republican seats and the other five are Democratic.

Assuming that 25 states are correctly called in the survey, either party would have to take all 10 to have a net gain of five seats. More realistically, it is a situation in which either party might gain a seat or two.

In Montana, Sen. Lee Metcalf, liberal leaning Democrat, is up against Gov. Tim Babcock, conservative Republican. The survey call was 50-50.

Close B. title

Gov. Frank G. Clement took the Democratic Senate nomination from Sen. Ross Bass in the Tennessee primary and is opposed by Republican Howard H. Baker Jr. It looks close.

Texas Republican Sen. John G. Tower is tangling with Democratic Waggoner Carr, now state attorney general, in what appears so far to be a standoff. Both have polls showing they will win — on their own polls.

In Nebraska, a copyright statewide poll for the Omaha World-Herald showed Republican Sen. Carl Curtis ahead of the Democratic Senate candidate, Gov. Frank Morrison, but it is still a battle.

Republican Sen. Milward Simpson of Wyoming decided to retire and the party's Senate nominee is Gov. Cliff Hansen. Rep. Teno Roncaldo is trying to take the seat for the Democrats. The survey call: in doubt.

In the South Carolina seat regarded as doubtful, former Gov. Ernest F. Hollings is the Democratic nominee. He beat Democratic Sen. Donald Russell in the primary. Marshall Parker, a state senator who is an ex-Democrat, is the GOP nominee. Hollings is rated ahead, but a victory by Parker would not be regarded as a major upset.

There are 35 elections of governors. Of these offices, Democrats hold 20 and Republicans 15.

From the national standpoint, these elections have particular importance in relation to the 1968 presidential election. The power and patronage of a governor can help the presidential nominee of his party carry a state.

The states with Democratic governors are Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Vermont.

The Republicans hold Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The situations in California, New York and Michigan were touched on earlier.

Demo Bright Spot

As to possible party overturns in the others, the brightest Democratic prospect appears to be a take over in Oklahoma. Democrat Preston J. Moore, Oklahoma City attorney and former national commander of the American Legion, looks to be in front of Republican oilman Dewey F. Bartlett.

Idaho also may flip over to Democratic Republican Gov. Robert E. Smylie was beaten in the primary by Don Samuelson, a conservative. Cecil Andrus was named the Democratic nominee after Charles Herndon, the primary winner, was killed

In an airplane accident. Two independents — Perry Swisher, who has a Republican background, and Philip W. Jungert, who urges legalized gambling — have gotten in. Analysts gave Andrus the edge in this mixed up situation.

In summary, the Democrats may take Oklahoma and Idaho from the Republicans and are a strong threat in New York. They trail in other presently Republican states but are not very far behind in Pennsylvania.

Along with California, Republicans have good prospects for taking over statehouses from Democrats in Arizona and Nebraska. They have possibilities also in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Minnesota, Nevada and South Carolina.

Jack Williams, a radio-station operator and former mayor of Phoenix, is the Republican nominee for governor in Arizona and appears to be leading Democratic Gov. Sam Giddard.

In Nebraska, Norbert T. Tiemann, a small-town banker, is trying to return Nebraska to the Republican camp. He was tabbed as having a good lead over Democrat Philip Sorenson.

In a recent study, based upon statistics gathered in 1964, the bureau found that most working wives came from homes where the husband's income was below the adequate level. Need also drove most single women and nearly all widowed, divorced and separated women into the job market.

JHS Rolls Over Panthers For Fifth Straight, 31-13

Alabama Uprising Edges Vols, 11-10

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — try after kicking a 40-yarder Kenny Stabler led an Alabama uprising in the fourth quarter Saturday that wiped out a 10-point deficit and Steve Davis capped the comeback with a 17-yard field goal to topple Tennessee 11-10.

The victory, the biggest hurdle in the third-ranked Crimson Tide's bid for a third straight national football title, boosted Alabama's record to 4-0 and gave it a share of the Southeastern Conference lead with a 2-0 record.

The triumph wasn't nailed down until the final 6 seconds, when Tennessee's Gary Wright was wide on a 20-yard field goal

Long And Gollier Each Score Twice

By BUFORD GREEN
Journal Courier Sports Editor

Defensive tackle John Long picked up a fumble and a blocked punt and returned them for two touchdowns to get undefeated Jacksonville off and running to a 31-13 homecoming victory over Jerseyville, at the JHS field Saturday night.

Long, a 220-pound defensive tackle, and fullback Harry Gollier each scored twice in the first half as the Crimsons rolled to their fifth straight, despite a potent Jerseyville offense that did more damage against the Crimson defense than any of four previous opponents.

Jacksonville's running back of Abe Brown, Gollier and Rich Coble kept the Crimsons' offensive machine rolling most of the game, while the JHS defense set up three of the six scores by the winners.

Jerseyville's winged-T offense, led by Tom Tucker, Don Williams and Mike Hughes pressed the Crimson defense all evening, as the losing Panther club ran up 213 net rushing yards to 200 even by the winners.

The win leaves Jacksonville with a perfect 5-0 mark going into next Friday's Capital Conference showdown at Springfield Griffin, also undefeated. Jerseyville is still winless in five outings.

Panther Gamble Backfires
The first time Jerseyville got the ball they gambled on a fourth and one situation on their own 38-yard stripe. A low snap to punter Stan McGarvey was bobbled and Long gobbed the ball up at the 38 and raced untouched for the opening score of the contest. Dean Hill booted the only Crimson PAT of the evening for a 7-0 lead with 7:41 left in the opening frame.

Jerseyville shocked the Crimsons six plays later as the hard-running Tucker ripped off three good gains to the 42 of JHS, then sliced loose off a right tackle and romped the remaining distance and Tom Roudy booted the point after for a 7-7 deadlock with 5:49 still to play.

Jacksonville followed with an 80-yard march that consumed 13 plays, helped along by a pair of 15-yard, face mask penalties on the visitors. Coble and Gollier ripped off key yardage and quarterback Dan Brooks hit split end John Mathews for a ten-yard pickup to the 14. From there Coble, Brown, Brooks and Gollier punched it out, with Gollier going the final one run a fourth down play with 1:42 left and a 13-7 difference. Gerold Stewart and Larry Cook cleared the hole for Gollier.

A Jerseyville fumble on the Panthers' 48 one play later set up a third Crimson score. The 48-yard drive took 11 plays, with a ten-yard double reverse gain by Brown and Brooks' five-yard swing pass to Gollier the key gains. Again from the one Gollier lunged over with 8:22 left in the half for a 19-7 margin.

Tucker Gets Loose
Tucker broke loose on the following kickoff for a 46-yard return before slipping in the open at the JHS 44.

After three running plays failed to gain yardage, Long found himself in the right place for the second time. Gollier busted through to block McGarvey's punt at the 50, and Long gobbed up the pigskin and again made it all the way untouched for a 25-7 spread that stood at intermission.

A late Jerseyville drive that carried from the Panthers' own 42 to the JHS 25 ended at the gun when Brown picked off a pass in the end zone and brought it back to the JHS 42.

The only two drives in the third period were stopped when Coble intercepted a pass at midfield and Jerseyville's Tom Ruffis picked up Benny Richardson's fumble at the Panthers' 37.

Jacksonville scored for the final time early in the fourth quarter. Starting on their own 20, the Crimsons struck in only four plays. Gollier broke loose for a 29-yard gain to the Panthers' 43, and Brooks hit Mathews for a 29-yard pickup to the 13. Brown skirted his right end for the remaining distance on the next play for a 31-7 difference.

Panthers Strike Back
Jerseyville came back with a 65-yard scoring march that took only eight plays on the next series. Williams, who took over for the injured Tucker midway in the first half, chalked up three good gainers and McGarvey hit Hughes for 13 to the JHS 48. From there quarterback Phil Goss connected with Ron Fuchs for 23 to the 23 and two plays later connected with Hughes on a 16-yard scoring strike for the 31-13 final, with 5:42 left.

JHS threatened to score again, marching from their own 18 to the Jerseyville 24 before stalling. In that march Coble reeled off two long gainers and Mathews hit Chip Sulphen twice for 30 yards.

Brown was again the Crim-

SETTING COURSE: Halfback Abe Brown sizes up the defense and prepares to go wide on this sweep. Jerseyville defenders on the play are Bob Breden (60) and Mike Hughes (21). Jacksonville whipped the Panthers 31-13 to remain undefeated through five games.

3 Ex ISD Gridders At Gallaudet

Michael Burpo, Michael Raymond Hummel, and Herbert George Mapes, all three graduates of the Illinois School for the Deaf in Jacksonville, are among the top players on the football team of Gallaudet College, according to Gary Klingensmith, football coach at the world's only college for the deaf.

Burpo, a 188 pound 5 foot 6 1/2 inch guard and center, is affectionately called "Old Pro" by his team mates. He has been a member of the Gallaudet squad since his college preparatory year.

A junior at the college, he plays varsity baseball and intramural basketball, softball, and volleyball.

"Burpo does a commendable job as offensive center, and defensive tackle for us," Coach Klingensmith says. "He has a great attitude about football and is well liked by the other team members, who have given him the nickname of 'Old Pro.'"

Mike Hummel, a new student at Gallaudet College, is playing his first season on the college's varsity team.

Hummel New Addition
"Mike, a 162 pound 5 foot 10 inch split end (offense) and safety (defense), is a pleasant addition to our squad this year," Coach Klingensmith says. "He is the best pass receiver on the squad. Gallaudet played its first two games in the rain and mud so he has yet to be given a good opportunity to show what he is capable of doing."

Because of Hummel's excellent hands, speed, and attitude, Klingensmith predicts big things for him in the near future. The Gallaudet gridders are the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hummel of 735 N. 12th St., Quincy, Illinois.

Pittsfield Remains Unbeaten, Wins 25-0

QUINCY — Undefeated Pittsfield rolled to its fifth straight victory of the season, here Saturday night, with a surprisingly easy 25-0 romp over Quincy Christian Brothers.

The Saukees shocked Christian Brothers with a pair of first-quarter touchdowns then the Pittsfield defense refused to budge the rest of the way. Christian Brothers threatened to score only once in the contest, when a fumble gave them the ball on the Saukees' five.

Unbeaten Tech Tips Auburn 17-3

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Unbeaten Georgia Tech capitalized on Auburn mistakes and whipped the frustrated Tigers 17-3 Saturday in a nonconference football game.

The seventh-ranked Yellow Jackets trailed 3-0 at the half after failing to take advantage of at least two scoring opportunities handed them by the Tigers.

Placekicking specialist Jimmy Jones put the Tigers ahead 3-0 with a 39-yard field goal in the second period.

But the second half belonged to the Yellow Jackets. They tied the score on Bunky Henry's 26-yard field goal in the third period.

Tech bounced back when Haven Kicklighter blocked a Tommy Lunceford punt and defensive end Eric Wilcox pounced on the ball at the Auburn 11. But the Auburn defense forced Tech to try another field goal. The 26-yard attempt by Henry was partially blocked by Al Griffin.

Illini Scramble To 24-10 Margin

Naponic, Wright Hit For 2 Scores

& NAPONIC AND BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Illinois offset sophomore inexperience with control football and some breaks and scrambled to a 24-10 victory over Indiana Saturday.

Bob Naponic, quarterbacking Illinois' all-sophomore backfield, gave up a safety on the third play of the game, but he completed 10 of 22 passes for 131 yards.

Two of Naponic's tosses went to junior end John Wright for touchdowns. Wright took a short pass and staggered off balance 27 yards for the first Illinois touchdown in the second quarter. He got the clincher in the fourth period, taking a short toss over the middle and outrunning the Indiana secondary for 22 yards.

The final score of the evening came in the fourth quarter when Mark Beatty lunged across from three yards out.

Quincy is now winless in five outings.

Grojean, Gaudio Pace JHS Sophs To 5th Straight

Charles Grojean scored twice and Steve Gaudio rushed for 143 yards to pace the undefeated Jacksonville High sophomores to their fifth straight victory, a 34-0 romp over the Springfield Griffin sophs.

Rodney Simonds got JHS off to a lead in the opening quarter on a ten-yard carry, with Terry Hammers legging the point after. Grojean followed in the same period with a 25-yard scamper, with Simonds adding the PAT.

The scoreless second quarter was led by the defensive efforts of Bob Fitzsimmons, Hammers, Gaudio and Simonds.

Grojean plunged one yard for the only third quarter score, the TD being set up by Reuben Watts' interception. Gaudio picked off a Griffin pass and returned in 45 yards for a score in the final period. Rodney Jackson swept left end for a 23-yard score and Watts ran the PAT to end the scoring.

The Griffin sophomores are 0-4 for the season.

Stavroff. He went 62 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and intercepted in the end zone in the third quarter to wipe out an Indiana bid to tie the score.

Control First Half
Illinois controlled the ball through the first half, holding the Hoosiers to three first downs, but the best the Illini could do in the first quarter was a 3-2 lead on a 33-yard field goal by Jim Stotz, his second attempt of the period.

Indiana came alive after the halftime intermission and kept the ball in Illinois territory most of the third quarter, but the Hoosiers couldn't score. Dave Kornova's 38-yard field goal attempt missed, and Knoll killed their drive for a touchdown.

Northwestern, Wisconsin Play To 3-3 Deadlock

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Tom Schinke kicked a 19-yard field goal in the final period to give punchless Wisconsin a 3-3 tie with sluggish Northwestern Saturday in a Big Ten football fiasco.

The kick matched a 33-yard second period field goal by the Wildcats' Dick Emmerich in a regionally-televised game pitting two slow-moving offenses, slowed still further by a muddy field and a steady mist-like rain.

Emmerich had a chance to give Northwestern the victory late in the final period but his field goal try from 27 yards out sliced off to the left of the goal post.

There were 21 punts in the action-scarce contest and 12 fumbles.

Wisconsin was guilty of nine of the fumbles but lost the ball only twice.

Northwestern got a glittering opportunity late in the final period when a low pass from center ruined a Badgers' punt play and gave the Wildcats a first down on the Wisconsin 27.

Yanks Place Whitey Ford On Waivers

NEW YORK (AP) — Whitey Ford, the 37-year-old southpaw who has won more games than any other New York Yankee pitcher in history, has been placed on waivers for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release, the club said Saturday.

Whitey Ford
The Yanks emphasized, however, that Ford will return as a player next spring if he recovers sufficiently from an operation he underwent last Aug. 25. The surgery was to relieve a circulatory blockage in the left shoulder and arm.

Ford, who has 234 major league victories but posted only a 2-5 record last year, will remain with the Yanks in another capacity if he is unable to pitch, a club spokesman added. He is currently working out with the Yankees' winter instructional league group in Hollywood, Fla.

Battling to their fifth triumph of the season and third over a Pacific 8 foe in the Rose Bowl race, the Trojans scored the first two times they controlled the ball.

Winslow hit Rod Sherman with a seven-yard pass climaxing a 71-yard drive and McCall plunged the final yard after a 54-yard march.

Torres Wins 3rd Defense Of Title

SAN JUAN (AP) — Jose (Chegu) Torres won his third light-heavyweight title defense Saturday night by knocking out challenger Chic Calderwood with a right hook in 2:06 of the second round.

The 29-year-old Scottish challenger went down on his back and doubled up. He tried to get to his feet as Referee Teddy Martin counted but stumbled through the ropes and the fight ended.

Torres, 30, a New York born Puerto Rican, finished Calderwood with the first real good punch of the scheduled 15-round fight.

For the first round and the first two minutes of the second, both fighters had jabbed lightly and cautiously at each other looking for openings.

Torres was an 8-5 favorite but the fight had been expected to be a drawn-out slugfest. Calderwood, the taller fighter of the two, has a hard left jab and tried to get to Torres' head. But Torres kept both hands close to his cheeks and waited patiently for his opening. His famous left hook began to reddened Calderwood's body and then suddenly he found the opening to Calderwood's head.

The victory was Torres' 39th against one loss and one draw, greatly enhanced his hopes for a title shot with heavyweight champion Cassius Clay.

Russ Zulauf combined games of 210, 211, 226 and 245 for a spectacular 892 effort Tuesday night to post a new city-wide high in the four-game series department. Zulauf's series, which was only marred by two open frames — a 4-6 tenth frame in the first game, and a 7-pin misfire in the second — saw numerous league races tighten.

Zulauf's feat came during Tuesday Night 3-Man Handicap League action in which three units moved into at least a tie for second place. The Bowling Center, Price Masonry and Besco now hold 20-12 marks, while Hembrough Motors (20-8) has yet to bowl.

The Hilltoppers topped high team marks with 2201 and 623 figures.

Another tight race is shaping up in the Elks League, where Baker Chevrolet moved to within one game of league leading Wade and Dowland via a 3-game sweep last Thursday.

Cox Buick, who also swept, stand third, 2-4 games out. The fast-climbing Baker squad netted high game (1090) and series (3019) honors, while Elgin Cress' 218, 231 and 180—628 outing, and a 237 game by Tony Gaudio also rated as high.

A four team free-for-all resulted during Town and Country League play last Wednesday, as Budweiser, Crown Pinance, Cox Buick and Don's Gulf now hold identical 16-8 slates. Harold Megginson's 241 game and 646 series set new league highs during the outing, with North Jacksonville Foods gaining high team honors on its 938 game and 2819 series.

Robert Nergenah's 620 series, coming on 174, 230 and 216, sparked Water's Standard to the high team set (2850) in last Wednesday night's Civic League outing.

Marshall Chevrolet, second runner behind Orleans Grain, posted the high game with a 1048, while a 232 effort netted individual honors for B. Schneider. Elgin Cress leads the circuit with a 182 average.

A.C.W.A. behind the hot shooting of Evelyn Wiant and Dorothy Alexander, posted a three-game sweep in Pla-Mor League action Friday to tighten the 12 entrant standings. Mrs. Wiant recorded 180, 154 and 191 for a week-best 525 series, while Mrs. Alexander topped all scorers with a 194 game. Their efforts aided A.C.W.A. to game and series highs of 838 and 2340. Hertzberg leads the circuit by two games over Hillcrest Mobile Homes.

Gerald Lacey's 248, 214, 184, 212 — 858 series recorded a new high in the Three-Man Scratch League Friday to take over sole possession of the high average battle with a 190 clip.

The Powell's Body Shop entrant shared high game honors with Noel Lettice (248), while the News Agency's 2208 series and a 643 game by Powell's also topped the weekly charts.

Clifford and Sharon King topped high game and series marks on 208 and 511 figures respectively, while combining to lead all scorers in the team game and series department in the Friday Night Mixed Doubles League.

Ratings of 289 and 992 brought team honors their way. A 18-8 record has the Gibsons atop the 12-entrant field, two-game ahead of three other units.

Jim Penton fired the high game of 244 and series of 598 in leading Pepsi Cola to the team series crown in last Friday's Community League play.

Pepsi recorded their week-best set of 3037 on 1016, 1039 and 1982 outings, Jim's Big Value.

The 53 squad posted a new team game high of 871 in Kor-dite Women's League play Monday. D-2 leads the league with an 11-4 record, followed by G-1 at 10-5.

A pair of 2-1 splits tightened the four-entrant C D of A League field Tuesday, as Farmer's State Bank and Dempsey's TV moved into a two-way tie for the lead. Dempsey's took the 'A Sound Like Jets Flying Low For Five Minutes, Then Quiet'

"It sounded like 100 jets flying low to the ground." That was the description of the sound made by a tornado that roared through Mt. Sterling Friday night causing an estimated one million dollars in damage.

Another said, "It made a terrible grinding noise for about five minutes, and then it was quiet."

Oddly enough, out of the 2,200 people in Mt. Sterling, only two remained seriously injured Saturday.

Peculiar circumstances prevented others from serious injury, and possible death. Lawrence Kunkel of 311 East North street was helping his wife wind knitting yarn. "We'd just finished the last ball of yarn, when she said 'I feel like a bowl of ice cream.' Both of us went to the kitchen there at the rear of the house, and the next thing we knew all the windows were crashing."

Kunkel, standing in his storm wracked garden, preparing to bury five dead chickens killed by the storm, pointed at a huge tree limb through the front of the house.

"We went back into the living room and that tree limb was right where we were sitting."

Everyone At The Academy Probably the single most important cause for more people not being involved in the storm was the Kentucky Music Hall show, playing at the "academy."

Approximately 800 to 900 persons were packed into the St. Mary's gym to hear the show, and heard nothing but the rain. They sensed nothing until the power went off.

Another estimated 200 persons were attending a Brown county high school football game in Warsaw.

Others were not so fortunate. Mrs. Sandra Stout of 305 East Washington was at home with her three children, ranging in age from three to five years.

Her house caught the full impact of the force of the storm.

"I heard something coming and grabbed the children and ran for the back room," she said Saturday.

She was standing in what was part of her house, which now was only four walls.

The roof had been torn off, all of the windows blown in and the doors ripped off hinges. Neither she, nor her children were injured.

She called it "hell." Tidal Wave Scene Where the full impact of the storm hit, the ground looked as though a tremendous tidal wave swept over the area.

Grass, trees, fences were all matted down to the ground, pointing north.

To a newsman who covered the tornado which struck Winchester in the spring of 1961, the difference was comparable.

At Winchester the storm tore rooftops off houses and overturned a trailer or two. Mt. Sterling's storm had a greater impact, with probably higher velocity winds.

Worst Storm In Memory Residents of Mt. Sterling agreed Saturday after seeing the damage, nothing had created as much damage or havoc in their lifetime.

The two injured persons, James Ashbaker, 51, who lived south of the fairgrounds and trained horses, and Bob Moncton, 47, remained hospitalized Saturday night.

Ashbaker was transferred Saturday morning from Culbertson hospital in Rushville to Memorial hospital in Springfield where he was reported in "fair condition." Moncton, who also trains horses, was reported in fair condition at the Beardstown hospital.

Both were in trailers near the fairgrounds when the storm hit. Ashbaker's wife, with him in the home at the time, escaped injury.

The storm, which apparently started southeast of town along Ill. 99, cut through a two-block wide area along the east side of Mt. Sterling, leveling the Brown county fairgrounds before dissipating itself three miles north of the community.

Destroys Cattle Several farms northeast of Mt. Sterling, including the William Koch farm, were severely damaged. The country residence of Mrs. Ann Krupp and the A. J. Krupp's residence were also struck by the storm.

Krupps said that some of his livestock were missing Saturday morning, and when the cattle were located, had to be destroyed.

The storm damage extended as far north as the Edsel Kerr farm, about three miles from Mt. Sterling.

Vijay Kishore Dubey of Bombay, India, who, along with his wife, Esther has been living in Jacksonville for the past four years, left Jacksonville this morning for Hollywood, Calif.

He will receive training at the studios and offices of Capitol Records, Inc., in Hollywood. He will work with the most modern techniques of the recording industry, meet artists and composers and observe the creation of musical numbers and the techniques of recording.

He will also become acquainted with the manufacture, distribution, marketing, promotion and sales of records in this country.

From Hollywood, Mr. Dubey will proceed to the New York office of Capitol Records to study the international aspects of the recording business.

From New York, Dubey will leave for Hayes, Middlesex, England, where he will receive training at the Electric and Musical Industries (EMI) which is one of the largest corporations in the world in the recording field. Mr. Dubey will be employed by EMI for their company in India, The Gramophone Co. of India.

Mrs. Dubey will join him when he completes training and arrives in Bombay, estimated to be about seven or eight months.

Prior to coming to this country, Dubey was an announcer and producer first at All India Radio, Bombay, and later at Radio Ceylon in Colombo, Ceylon. He then went into film production and his film "AASHI-1Q" was released a few months prior to his coming to this country.

Illinois holds a special place in Dubey's life. His father studied for five years at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

Let Contract For IC's New Student Union

The Illinois College board of trustees has awarded the construction contract for a new student union building to the lowest bidder, R. D. Lawrence Co. of Springfield. Construction is to begin immediately with completion scheduled for August 1, 1967.

The cost, including equipment and furnishings, is in excess of half a million dollars. Construction is to be financed entirely through gifts to the college, without any loans or added student fees.

According to President L. Vernon Caine, the new union is the final building of the Forward Step development plan which was begun in 1959.

"This student union will provide an especially attractive social center and a facility for meetings of campus organizations and community guests. It will be particularly useful for commuting students who do not live on the campus. Space will be available for an adequate bookstore — which has long been a need on the campus, and it will improve the handling of mail for students. "The union also will provide a faculty lounge and better space for alumni and other visitors to the campus," Caine said.

The new building will be located on the north side of Edgeline Road and south of the present Gardner men's dormitory.

They just dust in the powder to absorb excess oil and then brush it out for bounciness, shiny, delicately scented bangs. To be at their best bangs must have that shiny, newly shampooed look.

Mac Alums Here Plan Delightful Five-Stop All Day Bus Tour Oct. 29

The Jacksonville Area MacMurray Alumnae Association will open its fall season with an all day bus tour stopping at a number of points of interest in Central Illinois. The date is Saturday, Oct. 29th, and reservations must be made by Monday, Oct. 24th.

The bus departs at 9:30 a.m. from Annie Merner Chapel and should arrive back in the city about 6 p.m. Members are welcome to have guests.

The first stop will be at the White Barn in Mason City. Mrs. Ellen Dearborn reports attraction there includes a collection of wooden Indians, hand-carved circus, a doll collection, a rare old dollhouse, pipes, political articles and a 1907 Brush car. Collectors of antique glass who may be missing a lid will be pleased to know the proprietor has a collection of such for sale, also stoppers for bottles and jars in both clear and colored glass.

After luncheon at the New Salem Lodge there will be a visit to New Salem Country Store. C. W. Laud assures the group of a seeing a fine collection of wooden spoons in all sizes, antiques with a constantly changing variety, stick candy and other items, once so popular in country stores.

The next stop will be at the Carriage Museum. This collection belongs to James Brunk of Springfield and includes 111 horse drawn vehicles, all properly identified with a brief history. Also on exhibit here, until permanently housed by the State of Illinois, is a fire engine once used by the City of Jacksonville. Those who prefer may visit the shops or the Lincoln Diorama in Heritage House. Scenes in this exhibit depict the life of Abraham Lincoln and are owned by Dr. G. K. Greening of Springfield. They were hand-carved and arranged by Art Sieving. This display, which is not yet completed, is to be moved soon to a museum now being constructed in the Lincoln Home Restoration area at Springfield.

The last stop of the trip will be at the Clayville Tavern. This 142 year old building has been restored by Dr. Emmett Pierson, also of Springfield. It was used as a stagecoach stop from 1824-1855 but was abandoned with the coming of railroads. It is believed to be one of the first brick buildings in Sangamon county and contains one of the few beehive ovens in the country in which bread is still baked. Here you can see walnut cabinet work, hand forged strap hinges, exposed hand-hewn beams and the site of the kiln where the bricks were made.

Coffee and tea will be served at this stop after which the bus will leave for Jacksonville.

Those interested in joining the tour are asked to contact Mrs. Harry Hofmann, 245-2921 or Mrs. H. A. Dollear, 245-8422 no later than Oct. 24th. Others working on the committee planning the trip are Miss Grace Fitch, Mrs. Jack Hartong and Mrs. Clyde Black.

When this is done, begin cleansing the face by removing all traces of eye makeup and neck. Remove all traces of eye makeup with a tissue and smooth on a beautifying lotion or moisturizer.

what is good?

We search constantly for something good... good things, good ideas, good people, and good times. But we're seldom satisfied until we begin to understand the only real basis for man's fulfillment. Jesus described it when he said, "There is none good but one, that is, God" (Matt. 19:17). Hear a one-hour public lecture called "What Is the Good that Satisfies?" by EDWARD C. Tells Of Day He Won 6th Purple Heart

'We Charged, Broke Their Line'

By JOHN LENGEL
DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — It was a day the sergeant won his sixth Purple Heart, stabbed a Viet Cong with his knife and heard the enemy wounded coughing and moaning all around.

In the first 15 seconds, the U.S. Marines took heavy casualties — and fought back.

"We messed them up, I guess, because they expected us to run, and my gangsters don't work that way. They just ran the hell in to them," said Sgt. Clovis Coffmann, 34, of Richmond, Va. "We charged and broke their skirmish line."

The Marine reconnaissance platoon had been in the field two days this week, observing enemy movements and gathering intelligence about 10 miles south of Chu Lai. Three times the Viet Cong hit them with grenade and rifle fire.

On the second morning, the platoon began moving toward its helicopter evacuation zone through 800 yards of jungle and grass armpit deep.

The sun seemed to stand still as the platoon worked forward in a T-shaped formation with the crossbar at the rear.

"We had moved 50 yards when the lead man let out a yell, and it was Katie bar the door," Coffmann said.

"They were firing at us from one to 10 yards away with rifles and machine guns."

Cpl. Robert L. Thornton, 20, of Detroit, Mich., was hit in the chest. "He flipped backward, landed on his feet and went right back in again and burned a couple of charlies (Viet Cong)," Coffmann said.

"Two grenades knocked Thornton down again. He got up and went back again."

Thornton blushed as the sergeant told the story. He still had the bullet in his chest. A doctor said it went between two ribs, missed the lung and hit nothing important. Thornton wore a band-aid to keep the wound clean.

Other wounded Leathernecks, hit in the legs and unable to stand, blazed away with rifles and grenades at the estimated 50 enemy troops. One Viet Cong was so close his uniform smoked as he was blasted by a Marine shotgun.

The fight lasted 40 minutes. Coffmann said he counted 16 enemy dead but couldn't tell about the rest.

"We could hear them coughing and moaning all around," he said.

Marine jets and helicopter gunships were called in. As they blazed away, the casualties, the dead and the platoon's equipment were loaded aboard medical evacuation helicopters.

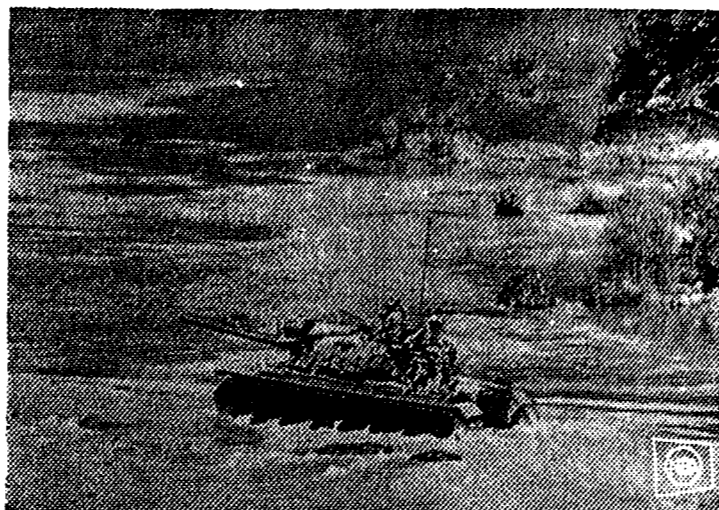

With everyone else out and a helicopter waiting, Coffmann, who is a gunnery sergeant, and Cpl. Alistair Livingston, 23, a former English officer cadet from Yorkshire, stood back to back in the bush. They had two pistols and two grenades between them.

Three Viet Cong came "waltzing down the trail, thinking we must have left," said Coffmann. "Now, gunny? Now, gunny?" asked Livingston. The sergeant agreed, and "We dusted off three of them," he said.

Coffmann stabbed the fourth Viet Cong with his combat knife.

Coffmann, who was hit four times in Korea and once before in Viet Nam, was wounded slightly.

Inventive Americans Keep Patents Piling

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans are the most inventive people in the world and they've got the U.S. Patent Office swirling in acres of paper.

The end of American inventiveness isn't in sight but the Patent Office already has taken steps to ease its paper crush — by ordering the installation of a $2 million microfilm system for patent documents.

A record 66,586 patents were issued during the fiscal year which ended June 30 — the vast majority of them to Americans — and the figure this year is expected to exceed 70,000.

ent Office's first year of operation when only three were issued — the first on July 31, 1790, to Samuel Hopkins of Pittsford, Vt., for an improvement in "the making of pot ash and pearl ash by a new apparatus and process."

Since 1836 when the current numbering system began, the office has issued 3,278,342 patent numbers — the latest Tuesday to Hoel L. Bowditch of Foxboro, Mass., for an invention called "industrial chart recorder with special inking pen."

One problem still nagging the Patent Office, in addition to the acres of documents it must keep on file, is the time it takes to process patent applications, which are being filed at a rate approaching 100,000 yearly. The average time has been reduced from 3 1/2 to 2 1/4 years with a goal of 18 months by 1970.

The office figures its inventories of patent copies cover more than two acres of storage space. It receives more than 25,000 orders daily for these copies from business, industrial, scientific and technical sources throughout the world.

The new microfilm system, scheduled to go into operation in June 1968, will relieve much of this paper burden and even save the taxpayers about $500,000 annually, the office says.

The system will produce, on order, a printed paper copy of an individual patent and make available for public inspection microfilm files of patents arranged by subject matter.

From The Exhibit Of

The Color Of Water At Strawn Gallery

"The Color of Water" is the arresting title of an exhibition of 50 color photographs to be presented at the Strawn Art Gallery on West College Avenue from October 16 to 30th. During this first exhibition of the season, friends and members of the Jacksonville Art Association are invited to meet John Arthur, who will serve as director of the Gallery as well as instructor for the art classes.

This collection of greatly enlarged color prints has been assembled by the Eastman Kodak Company as the fifth in a series of one-man shows demonstrating the abilities of color films. All of these photographs, taken in the eastern part of the United States from Nova Scotia to Florida, are the work of Jeanette Klute, research photographer for the Eastman Laboratories. She has explored with the exactness of the scientist the factors which can affect the viewer's perception of an object and the variables which will produce the highest quality in color prints.

Miss Klute is world famous for her book "Woodland Portraits" published in 1954 and now a rare collector's item. "My aim in photography is to make pictures which are new entities in themselves. I am not trying to copy nature," Miss Klute describes her work.

This exhibit will be open free of charge to the public for the next two weeks. Gallery hours are Sundays three to five p.m. only; weekdays three to five and seven to nine p.m. A social hour will be held on Sunday, October 23, honoring Mr. Arthur. Photographers and artists of the area are cordially invited.

'Typical Family' Chosen To Boost Cass Tourism

BEARDSTOWN — A feature of Beardstown's continuing effort to promote tourism is now being developed by a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce in the form of a new four-color brochure of which 15,000 are to be printed, probably in January of 1967.

Carl J. Looman, Bill DeSol-lar, Myrtle Yates and Virgil M. Dowdall are members of the committee and they have selected the Robert Gillenwaters as a typical Beardstown family to be pictured on the front page.

Mr. Looman said that a meeting was held Tuesday night to further develop the layout and plan the contents.

Seek State Approval
When these chores are completed the brochure will be submitted to state authorities for suggestions and approval.

Jim Watson of the state group was here one day last week and supervised the picture taking, including the shot of the Gillenwaters in close proximity to one of the "Welcome to Beardstown" signs.

Five In Family
Mr. Gillenwater, his wife, Mary Lou and their sons, Steve, 15, Stace, 11 and Scott, eight live at 1109 Washington. He is an engineer for the CIPS company, a member of the school board and a national officer in the Little League organization. The family has lived here 15 years.

Looman said the new brochure, while having fewer pages than the brochure put out a couple of years ago, will be devoted completely to tourism and will not emphasize an industrial angle.

Beardstown's growing importance as an attraction for tourists has been much in evidence since the Lincoln courtroom was restored to a state nearly like that it evidenced when the famous Almanac Trial was conducted here in 1858. Hundreds of visitors have been inspecting the historic building weekly with many famous names appearing on the register.

Bread baskets will be ordered for the Legion Home.

Margaret Tipsword reported that the auxiliary has carving sets and paring knives on hand, suitable for gift giving.

A reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Gary Brogdon, cousin of the bride, registered guests.

Others assisting were Miss Patricia Howland, Miss Elaine Clancy, Miss Ada Joplin, Miss Edna Riggs and Mrs. Lawrence Ellena. Members of the wedding party were entertained at luncheon at the Blackhawk Motor Lodge on the church ceremony.

After a short trip the couple returned to the city where they will reside at 222 East Michigan avenue.

The bride graduated from Routt High school and the groom from Jacksonville High school. He is employed at Anderson, Clayton Co. in this city.

Members are here from Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Louisville, Kentucky; Des Moines, Iowa; Evansville, Indiana; Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada and from in-state chapters at Chicago, Galesburg, Moline, Peoria, Springfield and Jacksonville.

Special guests are Mrs. Phyllis Schmitt of Des Moines, Iowa, Grand treasurer; Mrs. Adele Gore, Park Ridge, Illinois, Regional councillor and Miss Carol Sigurdson, Winnipeg, Canada, who conducted meetings Saturday and will assist in more today. Plans are being made for the international convention to be held next July in Milwaukee, Wis.

The Mid-West States Association will host the International convention next year. Miss Helen Mae Sandberg of Milwaukee is the general chairman.

The business meeting for the session here this weekend was held at the Student Campus Center at MacMurray College Saturday afternoon with Miss Patricia Wolz, Des Moines, Association president, in charge.

Following the traditional banquet held last night at the Blackhawk a variety program followed a theme of watching television and included music, movies, commercials, pantomime and prizes, the latter being forty donated articles.

The theme for the weekend was America the Beautiful and Saturday night's program opened with Martha Lorton welcoming the group and Frances Overton had the invocation. Jean Odaffer showed slides of different areas of the country with Doris DeShara singing a medley of native songs accompanied at the piano by Mayna Preston.

This was followed by "The Gemini 4" a combo from the Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School; the Cole Combo with Jack Cole of Glenarm at the organ, and his son, Mark on the drums, providing music during the dinner hour. Ned Jackson and Jack Barwick entertained with pantomime and Doris DeShara closed with singing America the Beautiful. Members of the local chapter assisted in "commercials" and presenting of door prizes. Audrey Hanks was toastmistress.

Brunch Today Our American Heritage is the theme for the Brunch today. Tables will depict an important phase in American history, ranging from the landing of the Mayflower to the orbiting of the current day rockets.

Miss Carol Sigurdson will offer invocation. The Madrigal

Singers from Jacksonville High School, Philip Falcone, director, will present several patriotic selections.

Representative Paul Findley will be the featured speaker today following the theme of the program for his topic. Mayna Preston will serve as toastmistress.

The best time to do your thinking is at trick one. You may want to think more later on but if you plan the whole play right off the bat you will frequently avoid most problems.

South analyzed West's lead as from a long suit and probably headed by the king. This meant that if South took the first heart trick, he would have to keep East out of the lead. Otherwise East would lead through South's jack of hearts and West would collect a lot of heart tricks.

South counted nine winners provided he could bring home four diamond tricks. He also noted that he could duck two hearts and just play to keep West from taking a diamond trick. The trouble with that line of play would be that there was no rule requiring East and West to keep on indefinitely with hearts. West might win the second heart and shift to a club.

On this thought, South decided to win the first heart and play the diamond suit in a manner that would be most likely to keep East out of the lead.

At trick two he led a diamond to dummy's king and returned the jack. He planned to duck if East played low but East produced the queen. South played his ace and received a nice bonus. The ten fell from West's hand. This gave South five diamond tricks instead of four and an overtrick at his three no-trump contract.

It should be noted that South would have been set if East had held three or more diamonds including both the queen and ten but that South had taken the best line of play.

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The "earthly reason" that would make the Johnson administration consider price and wage limitations is a sharp escalation of the war in Viet Nam.

Arthur Okun, a member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, used the term this week in criticizing the idea of economic controls because of shortages or inflationary pressures caused by war.

The very fact that the topic arose suggests the administration has seriously considered the earthly reasons — and that perhaps all Johnson's aides are not agreed.

Shortly before Okun spoke, Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor cautioned that controls could come unless consumers and business "acted sensibly," though he said there were no indications "at this time" that they would be needed.

Controls would serve at least two purposes: They would restrain inflationary pressures at home, and they would assure proper allocation of effort and goods to prosecution of the war.

Controls always exist. Supply and demand is a control. The mere threat of rigid controls is, in itself, a mild control. Persuasion, such as used by the Johnson administration, is another.

Wage and price guideposts are controls.

At the far end of the scale are artificial, rigid controls on wages, prices, rents and the use of commodities. And in between are taxes. Not long ago we lowered taxes. Now there is talk of raising them — to control inflation.

It would be difficult to believe that an administration committed to full employment, prosperity and the "Great Society" domestically could permit a dangerously uncontrolled economy, or that it would permit domestic demands to limit the war effort.

In the Korean War we did have rigid controls. But the serious threat to national security then produced only $265 billion worth of goods and services a year. Our productive power, our Gross National Product is now more than $700 billion.

At the peak of the Korean War, the United States devoted about 13.5 per cent of its Gross National Product to defense. The figure now is about 8 per cent.

Some shortages have begun to show in the economy, Connor told the American Ordnance Association. He said "some disruptions in the civilian economy" may become worse in the months ahead.

The Office of Emergency Planning, of course, has a blueprint for action in the event of a serious threat to national security. And it does, of course, include the use of rigid economic controls.

Such rigid restraints may be a long way off. And they may never come. Their use is distasteful politically and economically. And, as Okun said, they have defects, including rigid tape, poor planning, inept administration.

The chances are with Okun that we will not need them. But the possibilities are with Connor — that rigid controls could be Association. He said "some dis-

NEW YORK (AP) — Although Washington economists are fretting about halting inflation, huffing, puffing artists here are hoping to prove that it is not only economical but as thetically good for the country.

They are pumping limp vinyl sacks into plump pillows, hassocks, free-form sculpture, car-rings, neckties, baby bibs, even beds. They say the future possibilities of cheap inflatables is unlimited.

In the middle of it are Phil Orenstein, a wooly-manned sculptor; his partner, an Indian philosophy student Susan Souri; and a musician turned salesman Paul Klein.

The inflatables are a part of a company they formed, producing the pop, op and way-out works of their artist friends from cheap materials at cheap prices for the culture-impo-erished masses.

Inflated ties were his first application. His bowties look like misplaced waterwings and the four-in-hands look like swollen tongues. Nevertheless these were such a hit with kookie boutique shops that the men set up an assembly line.

Orenstein envisions the ease of moving day. "The whole houseful of furniture can fit in a suitcase, if the house is small enough and the suitcase is large enough."

Admittedly, a pin can make this kind of inflation a bust.

"But a little sticky tape will patch things up again," Orenstein adds.

RAP TRADE DEALS—WASHINGTON—GOP congressional leaders, Rep. Gerald R. Ford (L) and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, at a news conference here Thursday, called for an end to any trade deals or treaties with Russia and its satellites until they stop aiding North Viet Nam in the Viet Nam War. Ford particularly denounced President Johnson's statement that recent moves to broaden trade and cultural channels with the Soviet Union are "good business." (UPI Telephoto)

How a growing product line is creating new job opportunities for Illinois people

When two pioneer tractor makers merged in 1925 to form Caterpillar Tractor Co., the product line included five crawler models . . . and little else.

Today, Caterpillar's Illinois plants turn out 153 prime products—including track-type and rubber-tired tractors and loaders . . . crawler-type pipelayers . . . huge scrapers, off-highway trucks and motor graders . . . equipment such as bulldozers, rippers and tool bars developed for use with these machines . . . and diesel, natural gas and gas turbine engines.

This growing product line has kept pace with a rising worldwide need for dependable equipment in construction, mining, logging, agricultural and industrial applications. In the process, it's generated a continuing need for more and larger manufacturing plants.

Since World War II, Caterpillar has added over 9 million square feet of factory floor space in Illinois. Construction now under way will add 3 million more by the end of next year. This expansion is one reason Caterpillar, already the state's largest private employer, is adding 3,500 people to Illinois payrolls this year.

To people, of course, such growth means more than a "job." It means a satisfying career with good pay—and opportunities for advancement. More than 16,000 Illinois men and women have been with Caterpillar from 10 to 25 years . . . nearly 3,400 have over 25 years of service.

If you're looking for a career opportunity with a growing company, contact the Employment Office at the Caterpillar plant nearest you.

The Hazelnut Incident

Seventy-five years ago a girl living in Crackers Bend northwest of Jacksonville was in love and wanted to marry. But her loved one had no money: not even a dollar for the marriage license.

But that didn't deter her. After all nobody, nothing in this world, can stop one of the so-called weaker sex when she decides she's going to do something.

Ask Any Husband!
She heard that hazelnuts were selling for $2 a bushel in Jacksonville and the Indian creek bottoms were full of hazelnut bushes. So she picked a half bushel of fine hazelnuts to pay for the marriage license.

She knew that Squire Litter never charged any couple for marrying them. All she needed was the license. And surely a half-bushel of hazelnuts would pay for it.

That Villain
But the county clerk wouldn't accept the nuts; he demanded cash. People later recalled that this incident wrecked the Democratic party in Morgan county, and it stayed wrecked for a long time.

Before the Civil War no Republican ever had a chance in Morgan county. Lincoln lost it both times. The people who came from the South far outnumbered the New Englanders who settled primarily in Jacksonville. Thus the county seat usually voted Republican by a small margin; the rest of the county Democratic by overwhelming figures.

During and after the war the Republicans and the War Democrats fused to form the Union party, and they did pretty well for a time. But the "rooral" precincts came back to the party of Jackson, and Morgan county returned to the Democratic column although the Republicans had no trouble electing the state ticket.

The Morgan Democrats hit their peak just before "the hazelnut episode." There wasn't a Republican in the courthouse 75 years ago.

The Glory Days
Also Jacksonville had a Democratic mayor, and five Democratic aldermen. The seven Republican city fathers had an obvious majority, but it didn't work out that way. The mayor didn't go along with Mr. Roberts and his rules of

FOREIGN
October, 1866
The undertaker's business is a monopoly in Paris and is farmed out by the city to a joint stock company. It is said that the last annual report of the manager to the shareholders of this company commenced: "Gentlemen, the year opened badly; the general health of the public was unfortunately excellent; a change for the better took place in September; we are happy to say the cholera made its appearance in Paris and proved fatal in a majority of cases."

A Jewish colony has settled about Belfast, Ireland. The Turkish government has given permission for the sale and distribution of books and periodicals of the American missionaries throughout all parts of the Empire.

An eccentric Englishman, just dead, left a large sum of money, the interest on which to be paid once in five years to five young maidens, who in return are required to dance round his monument.

procedure. If he and three or more Democratic aldermen were on hand, well, that constituted a quorum. If everybody was on hand he always ignored any appeal of his rulings, and if a Republican sought to introduce a bill he was promptly ruled out of order.

Yep, the Democrats were really riding high until County Clerk John Calhoun Williams refused to take the hazelnuts. The people in the "rooral" precincts thought he was being pretty high-handed. After all, the old "swap order of pioneer days" wasn't dead. Farmers still brought in country produce of every kind and traded it to merchants for "store-bought goods."

Now the strength of the well-oiled county Democratic machine was in the country precincts.

They didn't believe it, at first, that a county clerk would refuse to give a marriage license for a half-bushel of good hazelnuts.

After all one of the finest families in the land had begun by giving a gallon of beans to the county clerk for a license, and a quart of beans to the minister.

There was a lot of talk about the come-uppance of Williams, but the first to put his opinion into print was D. E. McCarty, a lifelong Democrat who regularly contributed a weekly piece about the happenings in Crackers Bend to the JOURNAL.

Mask Of Deceit
He wrote:

"We have often heard people talk in this kind of fashion, 'the court house ring must be busted.' Now we never took much stock in such advice, because we are acquainted with most of the boys in the court house and do not believe there is another set of fellows in the whole state, when you take principles, honesty, brotherly love and manners the standard, that will equal them."

"Nevertheless we will agree that one of them must go; one we always had great faith in; one who had a smile for all, a hearty shake for his friends and cherished no revenge for his enemies."

"But this mask of deceit has been pulled from his ugly face, and his broad smile will cease to have the desired effect it once had."

"John Williams is the party we allude to."

"When an official gets so high and mighty in his estimation that he refuses to grant a deserving man a marriage license and take his pay in hazelnuts it's about time to take him down a few pegs."

"And to think that the man had his hazelnuts right there and was perfectly willing to turn them over for the much coveted paper, but John turned up his nose and said he must have the money."

"We say, put him out and get a man in his place who will trade marriage licenses for trade skins, beechwax, pawpaws, persimmons, hazelnuts, or other staple or country produce."

"We feel sorry for John, but refuse to intercept in his behalf, because he brought his downfall to himself."

The GOP Rolls In
The next election was a Republican landslide, with Crackers Bend, Buckhorn, Buzzards Roost, Seedtick, Monkey Ridge and Muddy Prairie voting to show those high gee-mucks who wouldn't trade hazelnuts for a marriage license a thing or two.

By 1894 the Democrats of Morgan county had only the sheriff — and he was a most personable and friendly man who said the county clerk was an idiot. There were two Democratic aldermen. That was all. When I first came to this town, in 1925, I heard a couple of Irishmen, Democrats who had seen better times, recall the "good old days" when they were in charge. At that time the "court house ring" was all Republican and the only Democrat holding office in the entire county was an alderman in the first ward and the superintendent of schools.

As they reflected in the glories of former days they almost wept in their cans of home brew.

One of them said, "It all started with them damned hazelnuts."

The other one said, "How true! How true!"

Now I'll bet you that Louise would issue a marriage license to anybody who brings in a half-bushel of good hazelnuts.

And I'll bet you that Jeannie would too.

October, 1866

They are carrying on a war of extermination against rats out in Pickaway county, Ohio. At a recent rat hunt 15,674 were killed, and premiums of $500, $300 and $200 are offered for the townships producing the largest number of rat tails. This is a good way to get rid of the vermin.

It is said that there is a village in Vermont which has four churches. Only one of these has a bell, but inasmuch as the other denominations refuse to assist to pay for the ringing of it, the congregation with the bell will not allow it to be rung at all.

A woman in Charleston, S. C., begged for eighty dollars to bury her husband. A benevolent lady visited her home to take her the money. In a darkened apartment lay the corpse; the widow was crying and everything looked most melancholy. She left the eighty dollars and departed, forgetting her parasol. Returning for it, she found the corpse sitting up and counting the money.

The American Colonization Society have recently had applications from 600 colored persons to aid them in their purpose to migrate to Liberia. Rev. Mr. Meredith, of Richmond, Va., tells of a negro woman of that region leading her people in idol dances, and giving out herself as immortal. Rev. Dr. Marshall, of Mississippi, says hundreds of negroes in that State have adopted what they call the "New Religion."

They teach that God is dead; and that the Saviour has been superseded by two old negro women, whom they worship in His stead.

They say that a resident of Toledo, Ohio, of some wealth and any quantity of outside respectability, had a servant girl in his employ, who dreamed that No. 6291 was going to draw a prize in O'Brien's Chicago gift enterprise. She asked him to write a letter in which she would enclose the money for that ticket. He did so. When the lottery was drawn, he discovered by the papers that 6-291 had drawn $10,000 in greenbacks. Saying nothing of this, he proposed marriage to the girl, was accepted, and immediately married. Then he informed her of the luck of 6-291, but was surprised at being told that she had afterwards concluded not to buy any ticket in the lottery.

A joint area meeting was held in Jacksonville October 6 by the Livestock Feeders Associations: Illinois-Midwest Livestock Feeders Association, Illinois Valley Livestock Feeders Association, Menard County Livestock Feeders Association and Christian-Montgomery Livestock Feeders Association.

Louis Livestock Exchange, National Stockyards, St. Louis; standing, George Thayer, secretary, and John Killam, president of the Illinois-Midwest Livestock Feeders Association.

The other featured speaker of the evening, B. H. (Bill) Jones, associate secretary-treasurer of the National Livestock Feeders Association, is not in the picture.

Caine talked to the group on the subject of the cattle situation and future outlook. Bloomberg covered the hog situation and commented on pork's future. Jones discussed national matters of significance and concern to feeders.

To help curb the loss of customers to suburban shopping centers, downtown merchants can cooperate in improving the city business district's appearance and parking facilities.

Planting trees, shrubs and flowers in the city business district is one way of attracting customers, according to William R. Nelson, Jr., University of Illinois extension landscape architect. Trees and other plants contrast pleasantly with the architectural regularity found in most business districts.

Nelson also recommends that city ordinances regulate the size and location of advertising signs. "Poorly designed, tasteless and offensive advertising signs often confuse the shopper and may even drive him away," he says. "Large rooftop signs and signs that hang over the sidewalk are the worst offenders."

He also suggests that unused, open areas behind and between buildings be converted to parking areas or even to pedestrian courts and malls with attractive street furniture. Malls also might improve the sidewalk system by providing shorter walking routes between buildings. Shoppers could exit at one store's back door, cross the mall and enter another store previously reached only by going around the block.

Screen Parking Lots
"Unfortunately downtown streets in many communities impede potential shoppers," he says. Eliminating left turns or installing special left turn lanes, improving the sequencing of traffic lights and separating car traffic and pedestrian areas as much as possible should improve traffic flow. To reduce the visual dominance of parking areas, Nelson suggests screening parking lots with structural or plant materials.

Illinois animal scientists say research indicates that it may be important to keep boars cool during the breeding season. In one study, litters averaged 7.8 pigs when both the sow and boar had shade during the breeding season. Average litter size jumped to 8.5 pigs when sows had access to a sprinkler and the boars didn't and to 8.9 when only the boar was sprinkled.

Green County Board OKs Second Terms

CARROLLTON — The members of the Greene County Board of Supervisors at a meeting Oct. 10 passed a resolution supporting a proposed amendment to allow the county treasurer and sheriff to succeed themselves.

A letter from the state office of Public Instruction concerning the payment of the expenses of the county trustee office was tabled. Mrs. Gussie Frazier, assistant county superintendent of schools is the county trustee officer.

No action was taken on a letter written to the Board by Robert French, county superintendent of highways, asking that the Board locate individuals interested in operating private sanitary landfill sites near Greenfield and Carrollton to assist in eliminating the problems of litter and refuse disposal.

CANDLELIGHT IS CHEAPER
NEW DELHI (AP) — Pheasants at the New Delhi zoo are dining by candlelight.

Zoo officials found lighted candles placed in the cages at night attracted white ants and other insects, relished by pheasants. This has cut down feeding costs.

Flowers And Shrubs Make Downtown Area More Attractive

To help curb the loss of customers to suburban shopping centers, downtown merchants can cooperate in improving the city business district's appearance and parking facilities.

Planting trees, shrubs and flowers in the city business district is one way of attracting customers, according to William R. Nelson, Jr., University of Illinois extension landscape architect. Trees and other plants contrast pleasantly with the architectural regularity found in most business districts.

Nelson also recommends that city ordinances regulate the size and location of advertising signs. "Poorly designed, tasteless and offensive advertising signs often confuse the shopper and may even drive him away," he says. "Large rooftop signs and signs that hang over the sidewalk are the worst offenders."

He also suggests that unused, open areas behind and between buildings be converted to parking areas or even to pedestrian courts and malls with attractive street furniture. Malls also might improve the sidewalk system by providing shorter walking routes between buildings. Shoppers could exit at one store's back door, cross the mall and enter another store previously reached only by going around the block.

Screen Parking Lots
"Unfortunately downtown streets in many communities impede potential shoppers," he says. Eliminating left turns or installing special left turn lanes, improving the sequencing of traffic lights and separating car traffic and pedestrian areas as much as possible should improve traffic flow. To reduce the visual dominance of parking areas, Nelson suggests screening parking lots with structural or plant materials.

Now you should...
...poison rats and mice.
...clean up trash.
...check your tank heater.
...dream of turkey.
...harvest all the crop.
...buy a fire extinguisher.
...check the extinguisher you have.

...watch a football game.
If you are interested in buying a new combine, picker or other equipment try to see it in operation this fall. You can save money with "after the season" deals; buy before Jan. 1 to take extra depreciation; consider putting knocked-down equipment together this winter.

Fire Destroys Barn On Hobrock Farm In Cass

BEARDSTOWN — A barn on the Ora Hobrock farm 8 miles south of Beardstown was struck by lightning early Thursday and destroyed by the resultant fire.

Telephone service from the farm residence was knocked out by the lightning bolt, so fire department assistance could not be summoned.

Contents of the barn including a store of hay were lost.

Another Burglary
Beardstown police Thursday asked for FBI assistance in getting fingerprints at the Beardstown laundry where a second burglary in the past two months was reported.

Tom Bollhorst, manager, said checks and some change were obtained.

The establishment also was burglarized last August 8. Police Chief Carl Wubker said that he had been unable to "lift" any prints in another burglary he was investigating at the HI-T filling station on route 67 at the Arenzville intersection.

Twenty-two watches, the most expensive being $30, were stolen from the station sometime Monday night by burglars. The station manager operated a gift shop in connection with his business and said only the watches were taken.

Illinois Farm OUTLOOK

PROFITS FROM CATTLE FEEDING SHRINK

The nation's cattle feeders had a very profitable year in 1965 and prices continued good in the first quarter of this year. More recently, however, profits from cattle feeding have been squeezed to the vanishing point. Costs for feeder cattle and feed have risen, while prices for fat cattle have declined. In 1965 Illinois cattle feeders received about $151 for each $100 worth of feed to their cattle. This was the best return in 15 years. The average return for the past 15 years was only $119.

Costs Increase. Average prices of feeder cattle held close to $20 during the 12 months ending with March, 1965. During the next 12 months they rose sharply, reaching about $28 in March of this year. Costs of feeder cattle came down later in the spring, but recent prices were averaging around $25 to $26 at central markets. Prices are much higher for top feeder steers, and especially for the better calves. Recent bids for new corn were over $1.25 a bushel, up about 20 cents from a year ago. Prices for protein supplements are up $10 to $15 a ton.

Prices of Fat Cattle Decline. Average prices of slaughter steers, all grades, averaged nearly $25 in 1965, then climbed to $28 in March of this year. Prices worked down to around the $25 level during the summer and have continued near that level in recent weeks.

Commercial beef production totaled 9,508 million pounds during the first half of this year, 7 per cent more than a year earlier. In the third quarter (July through September) beef production was up only about 3 per cent from a year ago, but pork output was up about 3 per cent and broiler production up around 8 per cent.

Cattle feeders hope that prices of fat cattle will rise soon. Some price improvement is possible, though there are some unfavorable signs.

More Cattle in Feedlots. Back on July 1 the number of cattle being fattened for market was estimated at 8,347,000 head, 11 per cent more than a year earlier. Nearly half of these cattle remained in feedlots on October 1.

Reported shipments of feeder cattle into the North Central States in July and August totaled 1,018,000, which was 17 per cent more than a year before.

On September 1 there were 3,227,000 cattle on feed in five western states for which figures were available. This number was 7 per cent more than a year earlier. The states were California, Nebraska, Texas, Colorado and Arizona.

More Competition From Other Meats. Farmers are producing about 6 per cent more hogs than they were a year ago. Broiler production is up about 8 per cent and turkey production about 11 per cent.

Unfavorable publicity about meat prices may have helped to depress prices of cattle in recent months. Such publicity may continue to depress prices for some time.

Favorable Prospects. There are some favorable possibilities in the beef cattle outlook: (1) Slaughter of cows and heifers might be reduced, which would tend to raise the foundation under the entire cattle price structure. (2) The spread between bottom and top prices, which has been very small in recent months, could increase materially. Such a development could, over a period of six months or so, add $3 to $4 to the price of choice steers.

Plenty Of Turkeys For Holiday Table; Lower Prices Seen

More turkeys will be available for holiday tables this year than ever before, says R. P. Bentz, University of Illinois agricultural economist.

Bentz points out that the U.S. Department of Agriculture has predicted that turkey numbers this year will exceed the 1965 volume by 10 to 12 per cent. If this prediction is correct, the 1966 turkey crop will amount to 115 to 117 million birds, ranking seventh among the 12 north-central states.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, 8- to 16-pound turkeys are expected to sell for about 45 cents a pound, says Bentz. "This price is four cents less than last year's average, and it's a welcome change for consumers who have recently faced so many food price increases," he says.

Heavier turkeys may sell for less than 40 cents a pound. "Turkeys are going to be a good buy this year because of price competition from both broilers and pork and because of a record turkey crop," Bentz explains. As a result, average retail prices for turkeys should be lower in most areas this fall.

Here are Bentz' observations on supply and farm price situations for the fall season when more than two-thirds of the year's turkey supply is consumed:

—Turkey slaughter for the first six months of this year was 32 percent higher than the same period last year. Despite the effort to market birds early, the bulk of the turkey crop has yet to move off farms.

—Cold storage stocks of turkeys fell this summer to the lowest level in five years. But by September 1 stocks had increased to nearly 166 million pounds, a record high for that date. Carryover on January 1 is also expected to reach a record high.

—Farm prices for turkeys this fall are expected to average about 21 cents a pound. This means the 1966 average farm price will be down only slightly from the 22.6 cents per pound average in 1965. During the first eight months of this year, turkey prices averaged 23.2 cents a pound, one-half cent above last year's average for the same period.

—The North-Central Region will produce about 46 percent of this year's turkey crop. Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri are the three leading turkey-producing states in the region. But each of the 12 states in the region — except Kansas — will probably raise more than a million birds this year.

Predicts Change In Planting, Harvesting Tools
About 2 per cent of Illinois' 9-million-acre corn crop was planted in 30-inch rows in 1965, the first year commercial equipment for narrow-row planting was available on a production basis.

However, the switch to narrow rows is bound to mushroom from that modest beginning, say University of Illinois agricultural engineers. The result will surely be new concepts of planting and harvesting equipment.

Extension agricultural engineer Wendell Bowers says typical costs to convert equipment to narrow-row planting ranged from $3.83 per acre per year on 100 acres to $1.40 per acre annually on 600 acres.

Conversion costs between those two extremes averaged $2.30 for 200 acres, $1.82 for 300 acres, $1.60 for 400 acres and $1.48 for 500 acres.

The albatross is one of the most powerful flying sea birds in the world. There is evidence that the phenomenal homing instinct of these birds has enabled them to circumnavigate the southern hemisphere one or more times between breeding seasons. One albatross, taken from its nesting place on Midway Island to the North Pacific, made the return trip of 3,200 miles in just over 10 days, at an average speed of 317 miles per day.

COSMIC DUST CLOUDS

By WALTER B. HENDRICKSON JR.

There are two clouds of cosmic dust trapped in the orbit of the moon, one 60 degrees behind the moon and one 60 degrees ahead of it. These clouds are meteorites which have wandered into the libration points where neither the gravity of earth nor the moon can dislodge them. They may offer clues to the earth's origin, radiation from the sun, and even the possibility of life somewhere in space.

The possibility of such libration points was first calculated by LaGrange, an 18th century mathematician. The clouds were first seen by Prof. K. Kordylewski of Poland in 1956. Since 1964 J. Wesley Simpson, a Lockheed engineer, has been studying the clouds as part of Lockheed's work on the Apollo Applications Program.

"Because the clouds are so faint," said Simpson, "they are difficult enough to see, much less photograph, but on February 13 I was able to photograph the L-5 Libration Cloud. That's the cloud that trails the moon in its orbit about 60 degrees. The images of the cloud are too faint to reproduce on paper, but they can be seen on the negative. They are also visible when the negatives are projected onto a smooth, white surface.

Takes Trained Eye "Unfortunately," Simpson continued, "the visibility of these clouds seems to be a function of the extent to which the observer's eyes are trained. Professional photographers, film analysts, and photo interpretation experts see the clouds right away, but people unfamiliar with careful photographic examination usually have to study the negatives for a while before they can see the cloud's images."

To make sure that the experts were not mistaken Simpson subjected the negatives to a series of tests. A microscope was used to examine the negatives to detect any chemical stains or defects, and also study the grain size and distribution. These tests showed that the negatives had no defects. The thickness of the negatives was then measured and contour outlines drawn of the clouds. The outlines agreed with the general size and shape of the cloud images seen by the experts.

The final step was to take pictures of the same area of the sky after the clouds had moved on in their orbit around earth. These control negatives showed no cloud images. This, along with the other tests, proved that the cloud images were really there.

Space Rubble Simpson described the clouds' potential: "Though some time may pass before we get there, imagine what we can do to exploit these clouds. Here is a chance to study rubble—which may have come from all over space. It might give us completely new data on our universe.

"And think of having a 'space hook' up there to sort of hang space stations on. Neither the earth's nor moon's gravity would affect them."

Life's Reciprocal Seasons

By Mary Pence Claywell
Ah no, dear friends, we can not find, here in this world today, A place where "all" are HAPPY, for it wasn't planned that way: God tells us all about it, in His True and Holy Word... Yet our sweet and wistful thinking, none would ever call absurd; Into each life, comes some of sunshine... some of clouds and too, of rain, Likewise, some of tears, and some of comfort, also pain; And why we can not find a place, where every one is gay... It is because they do not come to "All," the SELF-SAME day; Someone is full of happiness, today... and yet tomorrow, Another weary from life's load... one's heart is filled with sorrow; And so we thank Thee, Father God... Thy Reason seems so plain;

Let's Go Birding

Fall Census For '66

By Emma Mae Leonhard

Our Morgan County Audubon fall bird census for the area was held on Saturday, from sunrise to sunset, September 10. We were fortunate to have a clear though warm day, for a fall bird census isn't easy at its best. Most of the birds have lost their bright summer plumage marks, and many species look more or less alike. They don't draw our attention to their presence by their characteristic spring songs; in fact, most of them say nothing. And in the case, for instance, of the flycatchers we have to hear their calls to identify the special species.

The physical conditions are not usually too conducive to comfortable fall birding, nor was it for us that day. We were a dozen in number and divided into two groups, one concentrating on land birds and one on water and shorebirds.

Of course we were privileged to cover any kind of habitat which happened to be in our special area. Wherever we were, we wormed our way through dew-soaked high grass and a heavy crop of burrs and stinging nettles. Some of us showed no cloud images. This, along with the other tests, proved that the cloud images were really there.

Muddy Boots We who concentrated mostly upon the shorebirds sought the most extensive mud flat and dragged our mud-loaded boots through mud and mire during the morning. At times we tried to seek relief in the bogs of Arrowheads (water plants, not weapons) and sword-like sedge, but we often sank below the root foundation and moved out to the more secure mud flat. At times we swayed and lurched but can report no fatalities.

We aren't complaining, for our hard going was fun and brought results. We totaled 108 species when we made our reports in the evening. Although we found no rarities, some census-takers in the groups were introduced to birds new to them and added as many as six to their life list. This was not bad, for those young birders already had over a hundred species on their lists.

SPOOK-A-NANY

By Christine Hembrough

This year why don't you throw a Halloween party? A "Spook-a-nanny?" Wouldn't it be fun? (It's not too early to start planning either.)

Have your color scheme orange and black. Don't worry about having too much of those colors, the costumes will make up for it. If you are inviting a large group try to plan on having your party in the back yard, rather than the house.

String lanterns if you can get them, or you can bring your Christmas lights out and use them. You'll need a few extension cords, and be careful. Tie black and orange balloons to the clothesline, tree and any other good place.

If you want you can put gag presents in them and have everybody take one down and pop them at the end of the party. Put black and orange crepe paper over the tables for tablecloths, and buy Halloween paper plates, napkins, and cups.

Goblin Goodies Make sure that you serve the best "goblin goodies." Make a three layer cake, making two of the layers orange and one black chocolate (the middle one).

Frost the two orange layers with "black" icing and the black with orange. You can use white icing and food coloring.

Serve orange sherbert and chocolate ice cream, orange soda and other soft drinks and Halloween candies. Have cold cuts for sandwiches.

Warning: Don't plan on barbecuing or roasting outdoors, someone's costume could catch on fire.

The hostess and helper should not wear masks. Wear a different hairdo than you regularly do or if you have a wig you can wear that. For light haired people wear black ornaments in your hair. For dark haired people wear orange ornaments. For everyone: wear orange lipstick and polish your nails orange.

Games For games have bobbing apples, scavenger or treasure hunts, or any other games and have records going. You might even want to have a talent contest.

Make an orange pumpkin for invitations - write in his mouth. Be sure to include time, place, date; costumes worn and, your name and address.

Well I wish you luck. Letters Suggestion or problems anyone? I'll be glad to try and help. (We already have some letters that will appear in our next column.)

Triopia Powers Past Routt 20-6, ISD Wins 20-0

SHAKING LOOSE: Triopia fullback Ed Zulauf tries to shake two unidentified Routt tacklers from his right leg in an attempt to pick up additional yardage on this off-tackle slant. Leading the blocking for Zulauf is Jim Kleinschmidt (60) while Routt's Dick Zeller (85) moves in from the side.

Fumbles Aid Tigers' Win Over Porta

PETERSBURG — ISD struck early and the defensive team made good as the Tigers coasted to a 20-0 victory over Porta, in a non-conference game here Friday night.

The Tigers scored early in the first quarter following Bill Baxter's recovery of a fumble of the opening kickoff by ISD. After taking over on the 30 of the Bluejays, Mike Wasisco ended the drive by plunging into paydirt from the one. Wasisco also ran the extra point.

The second ISD score was also set up by a recovered fumble. The Tigers took over on the 22 of Porta, and Wasisco broke through the line on the 17 and scored. The run for the point after failed.

The final Tiger score came on a 58-yard scamper by Jesse Joyner. A recovered fumble again set up the score. The Tigers got possession of the ball on their own 42. On the next play Joyner was "off to the races". Joyner also ran the extra point.

The entire ISD defensive unit sparkled. Porta was held to 19 yards total offense—14 rushing and five passing and a total of five first downs. Porta fumbled eight times, and the alert defensive unit of ISD recovered six, turning three into scores. The Tigers picked up 15 first downs on 310 yards rushing. ISD failed to complete a pass in three attempts. Fumbles killed Tiger drives also, as Porta recovered five ISD fumbles.

ISD is now 3-2, while Porta has yet to win the five contests.

MEREDOSIA — Max Dunseth tossed three scoring passes and Pat Cray scored twice to lead the Waverly Scotties to a 37-0 non-conference victory over Meredosia's Indians here Friday afternoon.

Waverly scored four times in the second period. Gray ran touchdowns of two and 18 yards. Dunseth hit Delmer Delong on a 28-yard pass and Steve Timmons on an eight-yard pass for scores. Dunseth kicked the only extra point scored.

Ypreman, working as a cloth salesman in London, came to this country four months ago to visit his brother, Krikor, at Indianapolis. Krikor helped teach the soccer player how to kick a football, then got him a tryout with the Lions.

HANGING ON: Triopia's Bill Meier refuses to give up the football despite the efforts of two unidentified Routt tacklers on this carry. This type of middle-of-the-line pileup was typical of Triopia's 20-6 PMSC Conference triumph over the Rockets Friday, as the Trojans stuck almost exclusively to the ground and ground out 246 rushing yards.

Trojans' Ground Game In Control

By BUFORD GREEN
Journal Courier Sports Editor

Triopia's massive ground game slowly and methodically picked Routt apart in the second half as the larger Trojan squad squelched a Rocket upset bid with a convincing 20-6 PMSC Conference victory, on the IC field Friday afternoon.

The visitors, played to a standstill in the first half, so dominated the final two quarters that Routt had its hands on the ball for only 15 plays in the second half, four in the final 12 minutes. Triopia had the pigskin for 39 plays in the second half, 24 in the fourth period.

Triopia, outweighing Routt by over 20 pounds per man in the line, rolled up 246 net yards on the ground, led by a quick backfield of halfbacks Bill Meier and Larry Crews and fullback Ed Zulauf.

Played to a 6-6 halftime deadlock in the Rocket homecoming, Triopia got rolling in its favorite game early in the third period and the issue was never in doubt after Meier ripped off a 34-yard touchdown midway in the frame.

The victory keeps Triopia undefeated with a 4-0-1 overall mark, but more important gives the Trojans a clean 3-0 PMSC record. The loss was Routt's first in three loop games, and leaves the Rockets with a 2-3 season rating.

Defense Tough Too While the Triopia offense dominated the final figures, the Trojan defense, led by Meier, middle linebacker Charley Paul and end Harlan Fricke among others, kept Routt to a standstill in the second half. Routt's ground game managed just 58 net rushing yards, eleven in the second half.

Meier scored twice, ran an extra point and ground up 128 yards on 21 carries. Crews added 37 yards in 15 carries and Zulauf 37 in 12 tries.

Routt Gets First Break Neither team was able to move the first time they had the ball before Routt got the first scoring break in the contest, midway through the opening quarter.

Routt took over on the Triopia 32-yard mark when the Rockets busted through to block a Trojan punt. From there fullback Paul Lambert and Mike Sheehan poked out a first down on the 21. Sophomore quarterback Loyd Krumlauf hit end Dick Zeller for 12 yards and a first at the ten, thanks to a fine catch by Zeller.

Lambert gained three in two plays to the seven, and Krumlauf hit end Dan Weis for two to the five. On a fourth and four situation at the five, halfback Mike Sheehan took a quick pitch left and scooted across just in bounds. The run for the PAT was stopped for a 6-0 Rocket advantage.

Rockets March Again Routt got the ball again on their own 20 on the fourth play.

Mendon scored late in the third quarter on a one-yard plunge. The extra point was blocked. The score was set by a fumble recovery and two completed passes deep in Beardstown territory.

The victory left Mendon at 2-0 in the Midwest Conference and 2-3 overall. Beardstown is now 2-3-1 overall, and this was the Tigers' first conference game.

Score by quarters:

Mendon	0	0	6	6
